Continuing your studies in Ireland

A land with a rich history of education and learning

Education is richly embedded in the history of Ireland. We are today, as we always have been, attempting to push the boundaries of learning and innovation. Take the step to study overseas in Ireland, and unlock a world class education, with so much more to discover:

- Sophisticated Knowledge Economy
- Rich arts and culture, inspired by great thinkers, writers, artists and musicians
- Strong ties with the US - bound by shared history, kinship, common values and language
- Well connected to Europe - an English speaking nation in the EU
- A warm welcome - voted Friendliest people (Lonely Planet)
- Ireland is ranked first in Europe in terms of graduates per 1,000 inhabitants
- Ireland is ranked first in Europe in terms of how employers rank our graduates
- Irish universities are ranked in the top 1% of research institutions globally

Living in Cork

A vibrant, cosmopolitan city. Surrounded by stunning landscape.

Cork is Ireland's second largest city and is located near the south coast of Ireland. It offers students all the advantages of a bustling, vibrant and cosmopolitan city, with parks, galleries, shops, restaurants, theatres and historical buildings in abundance. Simultaneously it possesses a small-town familiarity and students can navigate the city on foot or via bicycle with ease. If you step away from the city, County Cork provides some of the most stunning coastlines and walks in Europe, and all right at your doorstep as a student of UCC.

Cork also provides excellent career opportunities once your study is complete. Apple's EMEA HQ is based in the city, with other leaders in industry such as Pfizer, BNY Mellon and Dell EMC based there. There's no limit to the post-education opportunities provided to UCC students in Cork.

Living in the heart of Cork

UCC is an integral part of the city of Cork, and students play an important role in the community at large. A wide range of accommodation options are available, from campus accommodation to private houses or apartments. Either way, you will have the city and Cork County on your doorstep. For more information, please see: <https://www.ucc.ie/en/international/studentinfohub/beforeyouarrive/accommodation/>

Studying at University College Cork

Lighting the fire of education

For inspired thinkers who want to embrace everything post-graduate university life has to offer, University College Cork (UCC) is the right choice. University College Cork — a world-class university of 21,000 students with a rich tradition of teaching, research and scholarship since 1845.

UCC is unrivalled in the quality of its academic programmes, the beauty of its campus and its vibrant student life. Our location in picturesque Cork, home to the friendliest of Irish people, means that a warm welcome awaits every student. And that's not all - Cork has been named a UNESCO Learning City, one of only twelve cities in the world to hold this title. Defined by UNESCO as 'a city which effectively mobilizes its resources across all sectors to maximise the opportunities for lifelong learning for all its citizens', Cork and UCC are symmetrical in our ambitions for our students.' UCC degrees, conferred by the National University of Ireland, are internationally recognised and respected. We're looking for students with strong academic records, independent thinkers, individuals that are determined to impact the world in a positive way. We'd like young minds that are ready to engage with global challenges and find innovative ways to tackle them. There's a whole world out there for you to discover and make your mark on - let it begin with UCC.

What will you study?

At UCC, we want to encourage our students to think independently, to aim higher, to become change makers. We structure our programmes to help encourage your ambitions - be it driving a green economy, encouraging health and wellbeing, understanding global citizenship or pursuing innovation.

UCC is organised into four colleges: College of Arts, Celtic Studies and Social Sciences; College of Business and Law; College of Science, Engineering and Food Science; and the College of Medicine and Health. Each of these colleges offers a wide variety of postgraduate programmes which encourage our central themes, and spark independent thinking.

Please visit the following link to view the taught postgraduate programmes on offer at UCC: <https://www.ucc.ie/en/study/postgrad/taughtcourses/>

UCC has a world class research reputation with many internationally renowned research institutes and centres. For further information on your research options at UCC please visit the following link: <https://www.ucc.ie/en/international/studyatucc/postgraduateprogrammes/researchprogrammes/>

The application process

Details on the application process for a Taught Postgraduate Programme (Higher Diploma / Postgraduate Diploma / Taught Master) can be accessed at www.ucc.ie/pgi

A thriving, international environment

We encourage diversity of thought, ambition and knowledge sharing. International students feel right at home here. UCC enjoys an international reputation which draws 3,000 students from over 100 countries across the world.

Scholarships

A number of scholarships are available for international postgraduate students. Please contact us directly for up-to-date information on scholarship offerings.

Extra-curricular activities

With over 100 societies and sports clubs to choose from, we encourage wellness of body and mind in our students. Activities range from trampolining to the Science Fiction society, with something for everyone. Students can also make use of excellent free sporting facilities and join teams which help with integration into our university. Cork City provides endless entertainment in the form of plays, concerts, exhibitions, shopping and festivals.

Student Support

International students seeking support while at UCC can firmly rely on our various academic and personal support services. For more information on specific support groups and facilities on campus, please visit the following link: <https://www.ucc.ie/en/international/studentinfohub/>

Cost

Living costs range from €8,000 to €12,000 per year. For a full listing of tuition fees for international students, please see our website: <https://www.ucc.ie/en/financeoffice/fees/schedules/>

Ireland is one of the most beautiful places I've ever been to. It almost looks like a fairy tale. But it's the people that make this place so special. They are the friendliest and most welcoming people I could imagine.
